

10th Anniversary Celebration Astronomy Day Saturday 16 January 2016

Oldfield Hall, King Charles 1st School, Comberton Road, KIDDERMINSTER. DY10 1XA
Admission is free and open to all

Speaker Programme

1300	Welcome and Opening Comments
1315	Is Pluto a Planet	Jerry Stone (Spaceflight UK) www.spaceflight-uk.com
1415	Break
1445	Things that go Bang in the Night	Professor Andy Newsam (Liverpool John Moores University) www.ljmu.ac.uk
1600	Break
1615	Rosetta and Philae	Dave Eagle www.eagleseye.me.uk
1715	Break
1730	Rosetta and Philae (Part 2)	Dave Eagle
1800	Closing Remarks and thanks
1815	Observing . . . if the sky is clear	If the weather is bad Society Member Chris Ashman will present a Guide to the Night Sky showing what we could see

Trade Stalls

Dave Shayler Spaceflight Author – Astro Info Service	www.astroinfoservice.co.uk
Dave Evetts – Midlands Spaceflight Society	www.midspace.org.uk
Jerry Stone Spaceflight Author – Spaceflight UK	www.spaceflight-uk.com
Mark Perman – BIS West Midlands	www.bis-space.com
Carmen Capuano – Children’s Author
Chris Livingston – Telescopes
Nick Deakin – Spaceboosters	www.space-boosters.co.uk

All talks will take place in Oldfield Hall at King Charles School. After the first talks and alongside the later talks Jerry Stone will provide work shops such as “Rocket Factory” and “Build a Mars Lander” for children in the adjacent Gymnasium giving the youngsters an insight into space exploration. Jerry Stone is the author of “One Small Step”, celebrating the first men on the Moon. He will have copies to sell and he is happy to sign them.

All timings and event details are subject to change ...